

CC-ODS MONTHLY MEETING

OCTOBER 2016

Regular meeting of the Cascade Chapter of ODS was held on October 18, 2016 at the home of Debi Wallace. Those present were: Lydia Robinson, Janie Steinbock, Christina Wallace, Lynn Bury and Debi Wallace. Also present were Candice Shidler and her son Hunter.

Old Business. Sadly Kim Coleman has resigned as Tulelake show manager. She has other obligations for now, but we thank her for the great job she has done over the years. The good news is that Lydia Robinson has agreed to step up to the position. Debi will continue to be the assistant manager. Thanks to both of you for your support.

It has been decided that all schooling shows will be held at the Tulelake fairgrounds for 2017. Good footing, lots of parking are two main reasons. We also decided to make the awards for this year's schooling show read "junior non member" to reflect the status of those participating this year.

New Business: There is interest in having a Tack Swap event in the future. Most of us have unneeded items lying around and some may even need them. We need to find a date and a location for this event. We would like to advertise it locally and maybe involve other groups to rent space to attract more people and defray costs. Ideas were Facebook, flyers, Craigslist. Maria Meister holds one every year at her barn. We will ask her if we should join in or go on our own. Ideas for this event are welcome.

Debi Wallace wants to put together a basket of things to be auctioned off with proceeds donated to the Humane Society. Any donations would be welcome, just contact Debi. (Thanks, Debi)

Janie presented a balance sheet of last year's expenses and income. The Tulelake show lost $1,961. in 2016. Costs were about the same as before but income from entries was down considerably. Only about 60% of the stalls were filled and neither day of showing was full. In an effort to improve the balance of money, we believe we need to promote our 2017 show starting now. We will list our show in the CDS omnibus and Flying Changes Magazine to help. Our judges for 2017 are Lilo Fore and Axel Steiner, two of the biggest names in the business. We hope they will attract more riders.

Other New Business is Officers for next year. The list we came up with is below, but if there is anyone not on the list who wishes to help, please contact Lydia (pres) right away.

President Lynn Bury
First Vice pres Andrea Cox
Second Vice pres Jill Campbell
Treasurer Janie Steinbock

Secretary Debi Wallace
Schooling Show Secretary Lydia Robinson

Please vote for officers by email by November 5th. E-mail to Lydia Ballot will go out to current members.

Also remember the new membership year begins November 1st. You can join online or by mail, but NOW is the time.

Next meeting will be at Lynn Bury's on November 15 at 6:30. Remember meetings are on the third Tuesday of the month.

Cheyenne Reichert has a lovely thoroughbred mare for sale. Please see her add on Craigslist for pictures and details. klamathcraigslist.org/grd/5813367174.html

Minutes respectfully submitted,
Lynn Bury, secretary